

ROCKFORD AREA CONSUMERS

The Economic Development Committee of the Rockford Village Council needs your input to achieve the goals of our mission statement, "To encourage and support the growth of existing and future businesses in the Village of Rockford in a manner that recognizes the strengths and unique qualities of our Village, compliments our residential needs, preserves the character and history of our community, contribute to our financial security, and is closely coordinated with the economic health of Mercer County and the State of Ohio. In addition, we commit ourselves to ensuring sound and efficient government with citizen and business involvement to be encouraged through a strong Village Commitment to communication, continuing development of a highly trained and educated workforce, and providing for a safe, economically strong community."

If you do or could patronize Rockford businesses please complete the following survey and return to: Village of Rockford
